

CENTER FOR NEUROSCIENCE

FY 2017 Impact Report

Innovative Research

Training Excellence

Active Outreach

New to the Center

- Senior Faculty Jennifer Whistler and Andy Yonelinas
- Theresa Geer, Grants Assistant
- Memory and Plasticity Program
- Behavioral Core
- Zeiss Airyscan Confocal Microscope and Shared Microscopy Facility
- Shared High-Performing Computing System
- Rodent BSL2 Vivarium

By the Numbers

- 54 Grants Submitted since August 2016
- 22 New Grants Funded since July 1, 2016
- 7 New Pending Awards
- 75 Faculty Publications

Training

- New Learning, Memory and Plasticity (LaMP) Training Grant
- Neuroscience Basic Training Grant
- Vision Training Grant (Pending Renewal)
- New Postdoc Career Development Program

By the Numbers

- 24 Postdoctoral Scholars
- 41 Graduate Students in CNS Labs
- 60+ Undergraduate Student Researchers, Paid and Volunteers
- 93 Neuroscience Graduate Group Faculty
- 44 Neuroscience Graduate Group Students

Outreach

- Increased Awareness through New CNS Facebook, Twitter and Sitefarm Website (in progress)
- Third Annual Brain Awareness Week Public Seminars & Interactive Experience Brought 100+ Community Members to CNS
- Outreach Partnership with Breakthrough Sacramento, Supporting Students from Under-Resourced Middle Schools

By the Numbers

- 85+ Newly Affiliated CNS Faculty
- 132 CNS Donors
- $184,270 Gifts to CNS (FY17)
- $1,087,739 Faculty Grants from Private Foundations

Grant Expenditures

Direct Costs / Indirects

